Cover Rationale

Late 2014 residents of the east coast states in Peninsular Malaysia were affected by the floods. The floods calamity affected the residents both mentally and physically. This national disaster caused a lot of damages and huge loss. Its recovery processes took a few months and were executed in several phases. In the first phase, the residents focused on restoring their homes and replacing home appliances, clothing and furnitures. Once these basic amenities have been sorted, the residents then, were concerned about their damaged ICT devices. Thus, the 'Ops Jelajah Cyber' was executed. The teams approached these flood victims to perform the data recovery services on their gadgets. CyberSecurity Malaysia through Ops Jelajah Cyber was able to help many of these flood victims to retrieve crucial information from their devices.

"Ops Jelajah Cyber" is a corporate social responsibility (CSR) program of CyberSecurity Malaysia. This program is an initiative to help victims of floods to retrieve their digital information, which have been destroyed when the floods damaged their ICT gadgets like computers, mobile phones, sim cards and memory cards. "Ops Jelajah Cyber" convoy conducted data recovery in 3 States that are Kelantan, Pahang and Terengganu.

YABhg. General Tan Sri Dato'

Chairman, Board of Director

I am pleased to share with you CyberSecurity Malaysia Annual Report 2015.

Over the years, CyberSecurity Malaysia has grown from strength to strength becoming an expert and the reference centre for cyber security not only to Malaysia but also regionally and internationally.

This is proven when CyberSecurity Malaysia played host to the two world leading cyber security bodies – the Asia Pacific Computer Emergency Response Team (APCERT) and the Organization of Islamic Cooperation Computer Emergency Response Team (OIC-CERT) during our signature event, Cyber Security Malaysia – Awards, Conference and Exhibition (CSM-ACE). Both organizations chose Kuala Lumpur as the venue for their annual general meetings and conferences. On top of that, three other major events were also held concurrently. Undoubtedly, these have further raised CSM-ACE profile as the largest cyber security summit in the Asia Pacific region and among OIC member countries. This speaks of the trust and confidence by the 28 economies representing the APCERT and 21 members' states of the OIC CERT towards Malaysia.

With the theme "Bridging the World – Go Cyber Green", we call upon the international community to help create a clean and safe Internet ecosystem. Cyber-attacks to the Internet ecosystem are linked to how pollutants affect our natural environment. If these pollutants are allowed to persist unchecked and uncontrolled, they will destruct our natural world. The destruction could reach a point where such damages are irreparable.

Thus, to restrict further damages to our cyberspace, a collective resolve is needed to defend our computer networks in cyberspace. We must deny cybercriminals the ability to attack. To return to the analogy on how we conserve the earth, we need to institute green practices to reduce pollution and degradation of the earth's natural resources.

The resilience of our cyber-infrastructure is everyone's responsibility. No country, industry, community, or individual is immune to cyber-attacks. We now live in a world that is highly connected than ever before. It calls for cooperation, collaboration and participation to ensure that our infrastructure is robust against vulnerabilities and attacks. Cyber security is a National interest and priority, and each of us has a role.

Our core mission is to continuously nurture a culture of cyber security awareness by educating and offering support to strengthen self-reliance in cyber defence technology and personnel.

I am confident that CyberSecurity Malaysia will continue to foster greater collaborations among our regional cyber security stakeholders with a common goal towards ensuring a safe and secured cyber space that will open new opportunities for all.

Thank you.

Foreword From the CEO

Dear Stakeholders,

Warm Greetings and "Salam Sehati Sejiwa".

In line with government inspiration to transform Malaysia to become a developed digital economy, cyber security has inevitably emerged as a new source of economic growth. Cyber security will underpin the future growth of any digital economy and Malaysia should be ready to capitalize on this imminent trend.

Given the nature of threats and vulnerabilities inherent in a networked cyber-connected world, cyber security has indeed become fundamental and indispensable. ICT and cyber security are no longer separate issues and new innovative approaches must be taken to address both simultaneously.

Therefore, CyberSecurity Malaysia is always looking into expanding its service portfolio. As the reference and technical centre of cyber security in the country, all the way through 2015, CyberSecurity Malaysia has initiated diverse efforts to strengthen the cyber security industry in Malaysia by actively participated in various activities both within and outside the country.

In 2015, CyberSecurity Malaysia has continued to be the catalyst of cyber security industry in Malaysia. Various forms of strategies and innovative programs have been implemented. On top of that, CyberSecurity Malaysia also actively participated and supported technical programs, capacity building, cyber safety awareness initiatives as well as the production of integrated cyber security services.

Cyber safety awareness programs were in high demand. CyberSecurity Malaysia received many invitations from organizations to share information and knowledge on the importance of cyber security, including cyber incident related issues.

As a result of this ongoing engagement, CyberSecurity Malaysia has been recognized at the regional level. We were invited to participate in a seminar on Cyber Security and Desktop Exercise organized by the Thailand's Ministry of Defense.

In addition, CyberSecurity Malaysia became panels to deliver various keynotes as well as presentations at various events organized by the international organizations globally. This includes the organization of technical training program among ASEAN countries, held under the Malaysian Technical Cooperation Programme (MTCP), the Ministry of Foreign Affairs supported by the Ministry of Science, Technology and Innovation (MOSTI) and the National Security Council (NSC).

In 2015, CyberSecurity Malaysia received an award for the Best Cyber Security Innovation Award by FireEye Inc., a leading organization of cyber security technology research based in the United States. This award recognized our innovative service known as CyberDEF, which was specifically developed to address issues related to digital forensics and malware attacks.
